

Consultant Profile: Kerstin Stolzenberg

Born 1970, qualified psychologist (Diploma und MSc (USA)), since 2013 full-time consultant and trainer

Previous positions as an internal consultant and trainer: 1998 - 2010 management development, diagnostics, training, development of personnel development tools, process optimisation using the Six Sigma methodology and Department Head at AXA Service AG; 2010 - 2013 head of personnel development at Talanx Germany (with the brands HDI, HDI-Gerling and ProActiv); since 2013 freelance consultant

Main areas of expertise: consultancy and support of processes involving structural, organisational, procedural and cultural change

Training courses: systemic consultancy, process optimisation using the Six Sigma methodology (Black Belt)

Languages: German and English

Other information: lives with her husband and daughter in Cologne and always looks forward to Carnival despite her Lower Saxony background