

Consultant Profile: Silke Sichert

Born 1972, married, 2 children, studied philosophy, German and educational theory

Previous positions as a consultant and trainer: 1999 personnel development in a major bank in Munich, 2000 trainee in a management consultancy firm, then up to 2004 personnel and organisational developer at a large industrial company in Frankfurt, since 2006 a Managing Director at plan a

Main areas of expertise: supporting change processes, management development, team development, training consultants, communication training (moderation, presentation, conflict management), current special interests: language and brain research

Training courses: systemic consultancy, dialogue, process consultancy, MBTI

Other information: I love being in the mountains